

HAWAII

Volcanology

ERTH 130V

Jan 13 - 24, 2027

FOUND IN THE FALL 2026
CLASS
SCHEDULE

ERTH 130V is a 12 day excursion on the big island to study geology and volcanic processes of Kilauea Volcano. This field oriented course uses principles and concepts learned in first year geology courses. The course focuses on the history and features of the volcano and its interactions with the people that live on it.

Learn more!

Instructor: Kristen Sneddon
kwsneddon@sbcc.edu
CRN 46305
CSU and UC transferable

Cost
$910 + unit fees
includes lodging, food, and transportation, but NOT airfare

DEPARTMENT OF EARTH AND PLANETARY SCIENCES

