

Communication

Solie Canham

Submitted by Faculty from Communication Department

The Communication faculty presents Solie Canham as our 2024 Outstanding Student. She has earned a perfect 4.0 in all five courses she has taken. Her instructors state the following:

"Solie completed Interpersonal Communication with one of the highest grades across all sections of the course."

"Solie is a first-rate researcher, dynamic public speaker, and unwavering advocate for women's rights and mental health. She cares deeply about closing the gender pay gap and creating a supportive environment for discussing mental well-being".

"Solie is an excellent and dedicated student who thinks critically about how communication is shaping important cultural and societal issues."

"Solie cares deeply about her work while also caring for others. She pays attention to details and submits impeccable work!"